-----X

Plaintiff Valentin Damian (“Plaintiff Damian” or “Mr. Damian”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against 5060 Auto Service, Inc. (d/b/a 5060 Auto Service, Inc.), (“Defendant Corporation”) and Leonid Bruk, (“Individual Defendant”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Damian is a former employee of Defendants 5060 Auto Service, Inc. (d/b/a 5060 Auto Service, Inc.) and Leonid Bruk.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control a garage, located at 4036 10th Avenue New York, New York 10034 under the name “5060 Auto Service, Inc.”.
3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendant Leonid Bruk, serve or served as owner, manager, principal, or agent of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operates or operated the garage as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Damian was employed as a valet at the garage located at 4036 10th Avenue New York, New York 10034.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Damian worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiff Damian appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Damian the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he had to work over 10 hours a day.

8. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Damian to all other similarly situated employees.

9. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Damian and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

10. Plaintiff Damian now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

11. Plaintiff Damian seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

12. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Damian's state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a).

13. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a garage located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Damian was employed by Defendants in this district.

24. Defendants jointly employed Plaintiff Damian (and all similarly situated employees) and are Plaintiff Damian's (and all similarly situated employees') employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. 201 et seq. and the NYLL.

25. In the alternative, Defendants constitute a single employer of Plaintiff Damian and/or similarly situated individuals.

26. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendant Leonid Bruk operates Defendant Corporation as either an alter ego of himself and/or fails to operate Defendant Corporation as an entity legally separate and apart from himself, by among other things:

- h) Other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

27. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff Damian's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff

Damian, controlled the terms and conditions of employment, and determined the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff Damian's services.

28. In each year from 2013 to 2019, Defendants, both separately and jointly, had a gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

29. In addition, upon information and belief, Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce. As an example, numerous items that were used in the garage on a daily basis are goods produced outside of the State of New York.

Individual Plaintiff

30. Plaintiff Damian is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a valet.

31. Plaintiff Damian seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Valentin Damian

32. Plaintiff Damian was employed by Defendants from approximately February 2011 until on or about May 19, 2019.

33. Defendants employed Plaintiff Damian as a valet.

34. Plaintiff Damian regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as a garage and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

35. Plaintiff Damian's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

36. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Damian regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

37. From approximately October 2013 until on or about May 19, 2019, Plaintiff Damian worked from approximately 7:00 p.m. until on or about 7:00 a.m., 5 days a week (typically 60 hours per week).

38. Approximately three or four times per year, Plaintiff Damian worked from approximately 7:00 a.m. until on or about 7:00 p.m., 7 days a week (typically 84 hours per week).

39. Throughout his employment, Defendants paid Plaintiff Damian his wages in cash.

40. From approximately May 2013 until on or about August 2018, Defendants paid Plaintiff Damian $7.50 per hour.

41. From approximately September 2018 until on or about May 19, 2019, Defendants paid Plaintiff Damian $8.00 per hour.

42. Plaintiff Damian's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

43. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Damian to work an additional 2 hours past his scheduled departure time twice per year and did not pay him for the additional time he worked.

44. Similarly , on some occasions Defendants required Plaintiff Damian to work an additional 12 hours to cover a coworker's shift, and did not pay him the correct rate for the additional time he worked.

45. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Damian any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

46. Plaintiff Damian was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

47. Defendants took improper and illegal deductions from Plaintiff Damian's wages; specifically, on two occasions, Defendants deducted a portion of Plaintiff Damian's wages because he bumped two cars.

48. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Damian regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

49. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Damian an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

51. Defendants required Plaintiff Damian to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including a water motor.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

52. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Damian (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

53. Plaintiff Damian was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

54. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Damian not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Damian's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

55. Defendants habitually required Plaintiff Damian to work additional hours beyond his regular shifts but did not provide him with any additional compensation.

56. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

57. Defendants paid Plaintiff Damian his wages in cash.

58. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

59. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Damian (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Damian properly for his full hours worked.

60. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

61. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Damian and other similarly situated former workers.

62. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Damian and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

63. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Damian and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).
